PS… the reason I've suggested Deborah's agency as the address for written correspondence is that I imagine there would be security concerns about recording Ehud and Nili's home address.

It would be great if you could have it to me before February 4, but please let me know if that's an unrealistic deadline.

from the writing, but it's important to have a good AQ for marketing people. Or if this is something better or more appropriate for Nili to handle, we can send it to her. Please let me know what you think. Thanks. TB
